

Amorticure

Yet another night falls
I keep the light in my hands
While sanity is fading
Eden burns

The scorn of your tears
Leaves me dying inside
So I still miss your face
In an everlasting night

And I can only dream
For I can only scream
For the love I can't express
It is mocking me through my dreams

Take my rotten flesh
Once more hold me tight
To keep the memory alive
Buried lies

For all you have given
I have forsaken
Just to leave you naked
In the dying winter

There is nothing in my world
All I can do is pretend
There is no way to save me
There is no light at the end
Don't feed me your sweet lies
I am aware of the dead end
Don't hold my hand
It burns
