

EVERYTIME

woke up this night, sun didn't shine
I don't know wether I breath or not no tear I cried
Was I falling
my feet didn't hit the ground
Every bearth I took brought pain

EVERYTIME I HURT MYSELF
you hurt me , too
ALL THE TIME I HATE MYSELF
you hate me, too
I PRETEND TO SLEEP
I star to cry
WHO AM I

What have you become I don't know you anymore

Sometimes my wounds just bleed
Sometimes they go deeper then
Blood and flesh and bones
This morning I broke the mirror
Just to kill the one I hate

Every breath I take Every second I pretend
I feel like wasting air
When I was closing up my mind
I did scream just to hear a voice calling out my name
Killed myself
Sorry for the bed is ruined, sorry that you'll have to clean up

Tonight I did spread my wings
I flew so high, I did touch the sky
I've seen the moon out of cheese
For a moment I dreamed again my childish dreams
My bones broke as I did fall down again
