

FIRE

The fire hugs me
I feel it's burning love
The pain is filling my heart
With love

I can see my body
From hanging above
The fire is bringing
Me love

The flame is warming my soul
The fire is showing my bones
I always wished to see them
So I am satisfied with the pain

The fire is cleaning me
The first time I feel clean
In my life
The fire is washing away
The dirt of my soul
And all that will rest of it
Will be a bit of ash

I'm burning myself
I'm burning the lies
It was all my own fault
Now I correct it
Here I'm standing in flames
And Awaiting my life's end
