

EGO

IN THE DARKNESS I HOPE YOUR EGO BURNS YOUR SOUL

In the darkness I hope you burn
So my tears won't gush no more

I swallowed their razors
And they cut my throat
The glass shattered
The dream is dead

You did ask me to give
To give you all of my life
It'd sound so sweetly
I just had to fall for you
But just to rape it
And to leave my body hollow
You did betray me
Now I know your lying face

In the darkness I hope your ego
Burns your soul
All the corpses
You played your games with
Shall come and take you down
And no mercy for the pain
As you did throw me away
Cry yourself to sleep
I won't give you my saving hand this time

This cancer remains unhealed
No warmth left
No place to hide

Why did you play me
Like a little child's toy
I am a human
And I do deserve
Honesty
So if you suffer just the same as I do
I say you have no clue
Think twice next time

You knew that I would feel this way
And you id nothing to keep me from breaking
You never did care
Now I have to fight for the last little shread
Of selfesteem you kindly left
Trying not to drown in the thousandss of tears

I cried for you

You'll stay alone
Go die on your own
