

Goodbye

If I would kill myself today
Would anybody even notice
I'm not there anymore
Would somebody waste a single tear
For poor me
And my wasted...flesh

Long ago I did stop telling this to myself
But now as my days are counting down
To my dusk I would love the thought of somebody caring
Somebody to walk my last mile by my side
Love brings hate, hate kills, but without love you will die

As today on my last day I sit here dead inside
I don't know who I hate more
Myself or them
But who cares it's just me to go off this world
Nobody will give a fuck
Wether I bleed or not
And nobody will give a fuck
Wether I breath or not
And nobody will give a Fuck
Wether I live or not

Arisen from the ashes
I'm no phoenix
I'm nothing to anyone
Just let me die alone
Your nothing to anyone
I did die for your sins
Now you cruxify me
