

Shame

Do you call me a liar
Because I pretend loving you
Or do you hate me because you love me
I know it was never easy
To wake up next to me
I think it is not easy to love somebody like me

Call me a fool
I once thought we could get on forever
Call me a liar
I told you the truth about what I am
Call me insane
I once did believe in this world
Tell me I hurt, I bleed of shame

Still I feel the touch of your hand
I try to keep in my mind
When I dream I scream your name
I can't wish away
The picture burned into my dreams
And your face god, your face
I will never forget

I won't scream your name anymore
I am not your fool
