

Sing for me

Behind the mask of my dark face
I hide my empty eyes
Far behind the lake of my dreams
Where the cascade hits the quiet lake
The felicity of fugacious times
the comfort of a place to hide
For I am lost forever
In this fatasy

Oh raven sing
Sing for me
The song of infinity
Fly me away
Upon your dark wings
To where my mind can be free

The luminescence of your grace
Leeds me through the mist
The words that you wisper
Lead me to where I've never been
For you pierce right through me
And set my soul free
A place once so dark
Became a home
